8 What Makes You Different

Johnny is a big fan of school but that all changes when the new kid, Gabe arrives. Gabe doesn't speak any English, and that doesn't stop Johnny from going out of his way to be unkind. What will Johnny do when Gabe starts to make new friends? Will he join in the fun of making a new friend or turn the other way?

Johnny realizes a powerful message in this story where student differences are celebrated. Read to find out how chocolate milk plays a major role in the discoveries of the real universal language.

CELEBRATE DIVERSITY!

Imagine that you were a student at Gabe's new school.

Write a poem or a song about celebrating diversity.

Challenge: Include the main characters in your poem or song.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dashed midline, repeated down the page.

My Personality Tree

- roots = their life influences and beliefs
- trunk = life structure and particularly aspects that are quite firm and fixed
- branches = relationships and connections, directions, interests, how they spend time
- leaves = information and knowledge - and sources thereof
- buds = their ideas and hopes for the future, and their potential
- fruit = their achievements
- flowers = what makes them special, their strengths
- thorns = challenges, threats and difficulties

Everyone is different in their own unique way! Draw your own Personality Tree to show how you would describe yourself to others!

A large, empty rectangular area enclosed by a dashed black line, intended for a student to draw their own personality tree.
